Carrier for night distribution at dao

Carrier for night distribution, enjoy freedom and fast-paced work and become one of the starts of the night

The faster you work, the more you earn. Does that sound right up your alley?
If you enjoy freedom with responsibility as well as working in the quiet of the night while others sleep, we would love to have you on board.

At dao, you will get:

•A flexible night job with around 32 hours per week
•Good training from day one and a supportive community
•Piecework pay as you deliver newspapers, letters, magazines and parcels by bike, scooter or car.
•Salary and conditions in accordance with the agreement with the workers union 3F

We deliver every night and all year

As a Danish delivery company, dao brings newspapers, letters, magazines, and parcels to people all over the country 365 days a year.
Even though you will be working on your own, you will never feel alone. Because your manager and the rest of your team is there for you.

Deliver at night while others sleep

Before you start, you will receive training to feel confident in your role. You will also by supported by an experienced colleague, and your manager will check in with you to make sure you are settling in well.
During your shift you will:
•Pack your bike, scooter or car with newspapers, letters, parcels and magazines.
•Follow your route and deliver to doors and mailboxes
•Keep a good pace and meet deadlines

Not a resident? Not a problem!

If you do not live in Denmark, we will help you get settled. Because we know moving to a new country is not easy. During the interview we will tell you much more.

You enjoy working at night in all kinds of weather, and you:

•Are steady, responsible, and deliver with care and accuracy
•Can speak either English and/or Danish
